

My wife and I are STRONGLY opposed to any weakening of Indiana's law governing telephone soliciting. Life has been substantially more pleasant since we signed on to Indiana's "don't call list". We would not want any weakening of that AT ALL.